

SALISBURY DEMOCRACY ALLIANCE

Mission:

Promoting greater democratic involvement in Salisbury

What they do:

Salisbury Democracy Alliance convenes a 'Democracy Café' once a month on a Saturday at the library to discuss topics of a broadly political nature selected by participants. Recent topics have included whether politicians have a licence to lie and why we commemorate D-Day. All are welcome.

The alliance also organizes an annual talkshop with the Royal Society of Arts. Local people are invited discuss a wider issue at length and split off into workshops. The objective is to see citizens more involved in the politics of the community and to encourage a higher standard of decision-making.
